

Know the foe...

Arizona State University

- Location: Tempe, Arizona
- Founded: 1885 (as Territorial Normal School)
- Enrollment: 51,164 (Fall 2017)
- Chancellor: Michael M. Crow
- Distance from University of Utah: 668 miles

Popular Majors:

- Business
- Biology
- Psychology
- Human Communication
- Supply Chain Management
- Finance
- Marketing
- Political Science

This and That:

- ✓ Arizona State University has four campuses throughout the Phoenix area, as well as a large online presence.
- ✓ When the school opened, there was one four-room building and 33 students.
- ✓ Student to Faculty ratio of 21 to 1.

Did you know that.....

- ❑ Senior United States District Judge for the District of Utah Tena Campbell earned her Master's degree and a Juris Doctor degree from Arizona State.
- ❑ G. Homer Durham earned a Bachelor's degree from the University of Utah. He would go on to become a professor and eventually the academic vice-president at the school. In 1960, he became president of Arizona State, where he remained until 1969. He then became the first commissioner of the Utah System of Higher Education (USHE).
- ❑ Arizona State and Utah athletics competed together in the Western Athletic Conference from 1962 to 1978, when ASU left, along with the University of Arizona, to the then Pac-10.
- ❑ Among the prominent alumni of Arizona State is Temple Grandin, a professor of Animal Science at Colorado State. Grandin is noted for being on the autism spectrum and an advocate for those on the spectrum. In 2010, she had cerebral imaging done at the University of Utah.