

Know the foe...

University of Southern California

- Location: Los Angeles, California
- Founded: 1880
- Enrollment: 45,687 (Fall 2017)
- President: Wanda Austin (interim)
- Distance from University of Utah: 695 miles

Popular Majors:

- Business Management
- Communication
- Accounting
- International Relations
- Computer Science
- Economics
- Human Biology
- Psychology

This and That:

- ✓ USC has a Student-to-Faculty ratio of 8 to 1.
- ✓ Between July 1, 2016 and June 30, 2017, USC awarded 8,234 Master's degrees.
- ✓ The "Trojan" nickname was given by a Los Angeles Times writer in 1912 while reporting on a track and field meet between USC and Stanford. He noted that the team 'fought on like the Trojans of antiquity'. Prior to this, they had been known as the Fighting Methodists or Fighting Wesleyans.

Did you know that.....

- ❑ In 2011, the University of Utah football team played their first Pac-12 conference game against USC at the Coliseum. The Trojans won, 23-14.
- ❑ Prominent University of Utah donor John Huntsman Sr. earned an MBA from USC.
- ❑ Jason Todd Ipson, a screenwriter, director, and physician, graduated from the University of Utah as an undergrad and continued his work at USC.
- ❑ Minnie C. Miltimore was the first valedictorian of USC when she graduated in 1884. That first graduating class included 3 people.
- ❑ Among the many prominent alumni of USC are astronaut Neil Armstrong and actor Will Ferrell.
- ❑ The toy company Wham-O was created by two USC alums, Richard Knerr and Arthur Melin. This company has been responsible for Hula Hoops, Frisbees, Slip 'N Slides, and Silly String.